Questions About Medical Care

A CASE REVIEW CHECKLIST

A review begins with the care provided, the timing, and what changed. This checklist helps you organize a conversation without deciding whether malpractice occurred.

- [ ] The Care Timeline
  Approximate dates of appointments, procedures, symptoms, and follow-up care.
- [ ] Original Photographs
  Relevant images already in your possession, with their original files.
- [ ] Providers And Facilities
  The names of the professionals and facilities involved, if known.
- [ ] Written Communications
  Portal messages, emails, letters, and notes of conversations.
- [ ] Records You Already Have
  Visit notes, discharge papers, test results, and other available records.
- [ ] Relevant Earlier Care
  Earlier records or treatment information that may help explain the timeline.
- [ ] Medication Information
  Prescription records or medication documents relevant to your concern.
- [ ] The Effect On Daily Life
  A brief account of work absences, added expenses, and practical changes.
- [ ] Bills And Coverage Papers
  Medical bills, insurance explanations, and related receipts.
- [ ] What You Want Reviewed
  The care or event that concerns you and the questions you want answered.
